BUSINESS MISSION TO EGYPT, LIBYA, & TUNISIA FEBRUARY 24 – MARCH 8, 2007

The Canada-Arab Business Council (CABC) is planning a mission of Canadian business and government leaders to North Africa:

- Egypt from February 25 – March 1, 2007
- Libya from March 2 – 5, 2007
- Tunisia from March 6 – 8, 2007

Leader of the Mission:

- Mr. Dwain Lingenfelter, Chairman & CEO of CABC and Vice President, Government Relations, Nexen Inc.

Partner Organizations:

- Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade
- Canadian Embassies in the Region
- Canadian Manufacturers & Exporters

The Mission is intended to assist experienced companies in this region to make new contacts and/or reinforce existing relationships, as well as introduce new companies to these rapidly expanding markets. The CABC has an extensive network of contacts in each country and mission participants can expect access at the highest level to government and private sector clients.

Business opportunities for Canadian firms cover major sectors including but not limited to:

- Energy and Transportation
- Financial Services
- Agriculture and Agri-business
- Engineering and Project Management
- Information and Communications Technology

The CABC mission stop in Egypt coincides with a catalogue and trade show organized by the Canadian Embassy in Cairo.

Complete details regarding travel and program itinerary, costs, and the visa application process will be provided to registrants.
